

network

It is the connection of two or more devices together in order to exchange information

Server

A structure for connecting computer systems on a network

Internet

It connects more than 10 million computers in more than 100 countries around the world

GIF

Graphics file format

World Wide Web

The network makes it easier for people to find their way through the Internet

MPEG

An image compression standard and file format that defines a compression method for sounds, animations, and video

FTP

File sending protocol, supports FTP

Mapping
For Computer
Science